

STOLE TO KEEP BOY IN SCHOOL

New York Woman Arrested for Theft of Valuable Jewels.

WEALTHY FRIENDS VICTIMS

PAWN TICKETS TURNED OVER
AFTER HER CONFESSION.

New York, March 6.—Charged with the theft of jewels valued at $20,000 from one of her wealthy friends, Mrs. Jeanette Newmann, who lives at the Stratford house, this city, was locked up at police headquarters today. The police say Mrs. Newmann had made a full confession and told them she was actuated by her desire to keep her young son in a private school and to maintain her own social position.

The jewels were owned by Mrs. Evelyn Bell, who lives in Central Park West, and also has a home at Port Chester. According to the story given out after Mrs. Newmann's arrest today, Mrs. Newmann was introduced to Mrs. Bell last October by a mutual friend at the Bell home in Port Chester, and after that was a frequent caller.

Jewels Missed.
After several of these calls, Mrs. Bell missed articles of jewelry, among them a valuable ruby ring, a diamond ring and a diamond horseshoe. The horseshoe and several smaller pieces of jewelry disappeared after Mrs. Bell had returned to her home in the city. In each instance Mrs. Newmann had been at the house just before the jewels were missed. When the horseshoe disappeared the police were notified and yesterday two detectives who had been working on the case met Mrs. Newmann at the Bell home. After they had talked with her a few minutes they requested her to accompany them to her room at the hotel, and she readily complied. There the two detectives kept Mrs. Newmann under a constant fire of questions from yesterday afternoon until 2 o'clock this morning, without gaining a single admission from her.

Confessed Her Crime.
At that time, however, the detectives say, Mrs. Newmann told them if they would permit her to confer with her lawyer she might have something to say. The lawyer was called, and a little later, according to the detectives, Mrs. Newmann went to a closet in the room, got a suitcase and from it took twenty pawn tickets, which she told them represented the articles which had disappeared from Mrs. Bell's home. She said she had been forced to take the jewels to keep her boy in school and to keep up appearances herself.

When Mrs. Newmann was arraigned in police court, she gave her name as Jane Norton. She was released on $2,000 bail.

FEDERAL COURT NOTES.

In the federal court yesterday the case of Thomas Cairns against J. T. Richardson was dismissed. The actions involved alleged breaches of contract in regard to Portland cement. In each case approximately $25,000 was asked.

The case of Charles T. Wright against the Bingham Copper & Gold Mining company was also dismissed. This is one of the crop damage suits and involved $5,410.

Another dismissal was the case of Florence Kay Ehrbar against the Tribune Publishing company for $50,000. Mrs. Ehrbar sued for damages for the death of her husband, who was killed during the construction of the Tribune building. The suit was settled some time ago, but the formal order was entered only yesterday.

The $50,000 damage suit of Peter Gruben against the Daly-Judge Mining company was also dismissed yesterday.

John Markley was appointed United States commissioner at White Rocks.

The petition for a new trial of the case of John Sisan against the United States Smelting company was granted. Sisan at the last term of court was awarded damages for injuries to his land and crops by reason of smoke of $20,410.15.

In the case of James Godfrey against the United States Smelting company, the complainants were given twenty days from March 8 additional time in which to come in with assessment of damages claimed to have been sustained since Dec. 13, 1906, the date of the decree in the smoke case.

The hearing of the motion in the matter of the restraining order in the case of the Commonwealth Mines company against A. L. Fotheringham and others was continued until the next rule day. This is an action brought by some of the stockholders against others alleging violation of agreement in connection with the organization of the company. The mines involved are located in Beaver county.

ATTORNEY DENIES CHARGE

Says He Did Not Advise Hoben's
Accuser to Lie About Her Age.

A. B. Edler testified yesterday at the trial of Martin Hoben that he did not advise the complaining witness, Edna Thomas, to state that she was a year younger than she really is, in order that Hoben might be convicted more easily of a statutory offense.

The girl testified yesterday that at the preliminary hearing she testified that she was born November 21, 1885, while as a matter of fact she was born November 21, 1887. She claimed that Edler, who had been retained by certain people in Bingham interested in the prosecution, advised her to lie concerning her age, as the crime is said to have been committed April 1, 1906, and if she was born in 1885 she would have been under the age of consent at the time, and therefore the maximum penalty would be five years in the penitentiary.

The state after this admission tried to prove that Hoben also committed an offense against the girl on or about November 1, 1905, just previous to her eighteenth birthday.

In order to disprove this the defense put on a number of witnesses yesterday.

The case will probably go to the jury Monday, as the defense nearly concluded its introduction of evidence yesterday.

Mr. Edler last evening gave out the following statement:

"The newspapers in giving a report of the testimony in the case of the State of Utah vs. Hoben contain the statement of the complaining witness to the effect that I, as counsel, advised her to date back the charge against the defendant in order that the charge against the defendant might be felony instead of a misdemeanor."

"It would be improper for me to state conversations which I have had with a client, but the error sufficiently appears from the fact that I was not conversed with regard to the case and knew nothing whatever about the offense until after the last complaint containing the allegation that she was under the age of consent had been filed."

WIFE'S DEVOTION CEASES

Mrs. George S. McReynolds Asks
Divorce on the Ground That Husband Is a Convict.

Chicago, March 6.—George S. McReynolds, the board of trade operator who failed with liabilities of $750,000 and was sent to Joliet penitentiary on an indeterminate sentence for issuing fictitious receipts on grain warehouses, was sued for divorce last night. At his trial, Mrs. McReynolds testified that she had received $1,000 a month from her husband for household expenses. Mrs. McReynolds said she always thought her husband was a millionaire and she had not meant to be extravagant.

"The greatest mistake a man can make," she said, "is to keep his wife in ignorance of his business affairs. Of course he does it because he wants to shield her from unpleasantness, but it is not only a mistake, but an insult to a woman's mentality."

During McReynolds' long fight in the courts he was devotedly aided by his wife. The ground on which she now seeks divorce is that her husband is a convict.

FIVE DAYS AND $250.

Helena, Mont., March 6.—Still another well known Montana ranchman has felt the force of the government's determination strictly to enforce the laws relative to fencing the public domain. Judge Hiven today imposing a fine of $250 and five days' jail sentence on August Kropp of Teton county.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Avon, Conn., March 6.—While under the influence of liquor today, John J. Lynch, 30 years old, shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Dittman, and then shot and fatally wounded his wife and finally put a bullet in his own head, killing himself instantly.

A TREACHEROUS TROUBLE.

The headaches and dizzy feelings that trouble so many persons, are often but symptoms of kidney complaint.

Kidney diseases are very treacherous. They come on silently, gain ground rapidly, and cause thousands of deaths that could have been prevented by treatment in the beginning.

Nature gives early warnings of every disease, if you would but note and heed them. Backache, twinges of pain when stooping or lifting, headaches, faint spells and urinary disorders are among the first warnings of kidney trouble.

If these signals are unheeded, there comes a steady, dull, heavy aching in the back and loins, a noticeable weakness and loss of flesh, rheumatic attacks, weakening of the sight, irregular heart action, languor, attacks of gravel, irregular passages of the kidney secretions, sediment, painful, scalding sensation, dropsical bloating, etc.

But there is no need to suffer long. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney troubles. This remedy has made a reputation for quick relief and lasting cures. It is a simple compound of pure roots and herbs that have a direct action on the kidneys. It was the secret 76 years ago of an old Quaker lady. It was given to the public by James Doan, a druggist, and is now known and recommended the whole world over.

Home cures prove the value of Doan's Kidney Pills to our readers.

SALT LAKE CITY PROOF.
Mrs. Sarah Pearson, 542 Elizabeth street, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "I found immediate relief from kidney trouble through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, and therefore have no hesitation in speaking highly of them. I suffered from this complaint for years and though I used various remedies they proved of no avail. There was a continual dull pain across my kidney regions, and it was difficult for me to stoop or lift. The kidney secretions were also irregular in action, contained a sediment and were attended with pain during passage. Finally seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at the F. J. Hill Drug Co. and found that they were just what was claimed for them, namely a reliable kidney remedy. A short use disposed of my trouble so effectively that I have had no serious attacks of it since."
